

VOL XXXI BULLETIN FRIDAY 19TH OCTOBER, 2012 NO. 40

Transformation of Faculty of Engineering into a Centre of Excellence Commences

In its continued drive to upgrade physical infrastructures and academic programmes, the management of Bayero University has started to transform the Faculty of Engineering into a strategic center of excellence.

The Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed, MFR, mni disclosed this while receiving the President of the Nigerian Society of Engineers (NSE), Engineer Mustapha B. Shehu, and other executive members during a courtesy call on Wednesday 17th October, 2012.

Represented by the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academic, Professor Muhammad Yahuza Bello, the Vice Chancellor stressed that due to the importance given to Engineering, the University recently procured and installed modern equipment worth over ₦800 Million Naira for the laboratories and studio.

He said the Faculty would soon be expanded to occupy the buildings of the Departments of Mass Communication, History and Islamic Studies, as they would be moved to other new buildings.

Prof. Rasheed emphasized that in its efforts to make the Faculty one of the best in Nigeria, the University would soon start programmes on Communication Engineering, Mechatronics, Petroleum and Chemical Engineering as the Senate has approved them. He added that in recent recruitment four lecturers of Mechatronics have been sent to foreign countries for MSc and PhD.

Earlier, the President of NSE, Engineer Shehu, said the Society was in Kano for a memorandum of understanding with a non-governmental organization on the fight against desert encroachment. He said the memorandum would also create a Trans-Saharan highway that would facilitate commercial and economic activities.

The President expressed appreciation over the support given to the NSE by the University and promised to partner with BUK towards promoting the Engineering profession.

Introducing Calvin College, Michigan, USA

Below is the information on Calvin College that will help students weight the various opportunities and resources available to them.

Schedule a Campus Visit: Students can choose among 17 Friday at Calvin visit programmes throughout the academic year. In addition, we offer seven Department Visit Days for students who are considering specific areas of study and one International Student Visit Day. Specific schedules can be found at www.calvin.edu/visit.

Start Applying Today: This year, students can apply to Calvin in two ways: by using Calvin's own online application or the Common Application. Both forms are found at www.calvin.edu/apply. And, if students apply by January 1, we will waive the $35 application fee.

Explore Affordability: Calvin works hard to ensure an affordable education, and more than 92% of our students qualify for financial aid. Our tuition and room and board cost are about $4,000 less than the national average for private colleges and universities. We have broadened and increased our academic scholarship program, with individual scholarship amounts ranging from $1,000 to $15,000.

Consider Calvin's Quality: With outstanding Christian faculty, first-rate facilities and access to wide range of research, internship and study abroad opportunities, Calvin prepares students for rewarding careers. In a survey of our 2011 graduates, 99% of respondents report that they are employed or in graduate school.
