Physiotherapy Inducts 32 New Graduates

The Registrar of the Medical Rehabilitation Therapist Board, Dr. J. D. Jogunola, has administered the oath of allegiance to thirty two (32) new graduands of the Department of Physiotherapy for the 2011/2012 academic session who were inducted on Thursday 6th June, 2013 at the Aminu Kano Centre for Democratic Research and Training (AKCRDT).

Graduands taking the oath of allegiance

The Registrar cautioned the graduands to strictly adhere to the oath and ethical provision of the profession, failure of which would lead to their practice licenses confiscated.

Dr. Jogunola, while advising the graduands to be meticulous during their internship programmes, also congratulated them for scaling the hurdles of their academic career.

The Head of the Department of Physiotherapy, Dr. Rufa'i Ahmad, remarked that the graduands reached this milestone through commitment, hard work and dedication throughout the five years of their study.

Dr. Ahmad appealed to them to identify their areas of specialization before they start the internship, and advised them to be guided by the ethical conduct of the profession and maintain confidentiality with their patients.

The Guest Lecturer at the occasion, Zubairu Usman, who is the Financial Secretary of Nigerian Society of Physiotherapy said perseverance, persistence, parental support and the wisdom of their teachers were key to their successful graduation. He challenged them to manage their time wisely in all their future endeavors, and advised them to maintain good rapport with people.

On his part, the Senior Special Assistant to the Kano State Governor on Private Health Institutions, Dr. Salisu A. Ibrahim, commended the University for providing a conducive learning environment, which facilitated the smooth graduation of the physiotherapists. He told them that the doors of the State Government are open to them to come and practice in various hospitals in the state.

Three graduands were presented with prizes for performing well at the examination, which is often conducted a day before the induction ceremony. They are:

Muhammad Aliyu – 1st prize
Olukemi Olabisi Afolabi – 2nd prize
Huzaifa A. Muhammad – 3rd prize

The Chief Medical Director of the National Orthopaedic Hospital, Dala, Dr. Kabir Abubakar chaired the occasion. The Deputy Dean, Faculty of Medicine, Dr. Bashir Chedi, represented the Dean, Professor Abdulrazak G. Habib.

It will be recalled that on 17th April, 2013 the Department of Physiotherapy inducted 25 graduands in a ceremony which took place at Musa Abdullahi Auditorium.
