BUK Distributes 37 New Brand Vehicles To Deans, Directors

The Management of Bayero University has commenced distribution of 37 brand new vehicles to Deans and Directors to facilitate the discharge of their duties.

The university, having recently made giant strides on infrastructural development, manpower development and provision of facilities, resolved to acquire the vehicles for the Deans and Directors in its quest for better output, while they would surrender the ones at their possession for onward allocation to other deserving officers.

DVC (Academics), Prof. Hafiz Abubakar MFR presenting key to one of the recipients, Dean FAIS, Prof. Hafizu Miko Yakasai

The Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academics), Professor Hafiz Abubakar MFR, who represented the Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed mni, MFR while making formal announcement on the purchase of the vehicles shortly before the distribution of the first phase of 18 vehicles on Tuesday 25th November, 2014 at the Senate Chamber, said in the last 30 to 35 years this was the second time newly acquired branded vehicles were distributed to the management staff.

Professor Hafiz said the ‘Ford brand’ vehicles, were purchased with the internally generated revenue with which the university is executing other projects such as roads network upgrade, construction of theaters etc, saying that the management had set up a four-man committee headed by the ASUU National President, Dr. Nasiru Fagge for the sourcing of the vehicles.

The committee he said gave alternatives to the management and Ford brand was selected.

He said the university management had resolved to continue the purchase of vehicles and other facilities considered important, urging the Deans and Directors who have other vehicles in their possession to hand them over to the Director of Security.

The Deputy Vice Chancellor said the company which supplied the vehicles had agreed to service them for a four-year period free of charge, including replacement of shock absorbers and brake parts as it did to all its customers, saying also the university will enjoy a 10 percent discount, insurance cover and security tracking.

Responding on behalf of the Deans and Directors, the Dean, School of Postgraduate Studies, Professor Ahmad Sa'idu Babura commended the Vice Chancellor and the University Management for making a pledge and redeeming it in good time, saying "we can attest to the fact that infrastructural projects, staff development, conferences and other works are going on daily in the university and even with these the management was able to procure the vehicles from its meager resources. This is a commendable effort and it shows how the Vice Chancellor and management are determined to move the university forward".

Prof. Rasheed Tasks JSU Students On Character Building

The Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed, mni, MFR, has challenged students to develop good character in their search for knowledge so as to be good citizens in future and become useful to their nation and humanity.

Speaking at the inaugural matriculation ceremony and investiture of the first Chancellor, Jigawa State University, Kafin Hausa, Chief Olusegun Obasanjo, GCFR on Saturday, 15th November, 2014 Professor Rasheed, who is also the first Pro-Chancellor and Chairman of the University's Governing Council said "a matriculation ceremony signifies the end of admission and registration of undergraduate students for the academic session."

Professor Rasheed extolled the virtues of the J.S.U Chancellor and former President, Chief Olusegun Obasanjo, describing him as credible elder statesman, accomplished educationist and principled politician.

The Vice Chancellor JSU, Prof. Abdullahi Ribadu said a total of 774 pioneer students were admitted.

BUK to Expand and Strengthen Research

Bayero University has re-stated its commitment to expand and strengthen research as part of efforts to address societal problems, Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academics, Professor Hafiz Abubakar, has said.

Speaking at the 2nd Interactive Discussion on Biotechnology Research with the University Based Resource Persons organized by the Technical Committee of the CBR, held on 13th November, 2014, the Deputy Vice Chancellor expressed optimism that the University would continue to place much premium on teaching, research and community services.

He called on scientists and non-scientists to embark on collaborative effort through research to address societal needs, citing a recent breakthrough made in Biotechnology research on Soya beans, genecone, gene-mapping involving 35 collaborators, 11 institutions from China and U.S.A, which was published in the famous journal, the Nature.

Also speaking, the Director Research, Innovation and Partnership (DRIP), Professor Sagir Abbas said his directorate articulated its programmes and activities and is waiting for approval of senate and the management.

BUK Establishes Surgical Skills Center at CHS

Bayero University will do everything possible to establish a Surgical Skills Center at the College of Health Sciences (CHS), to facilitate professionalism and efficiency in surgery, the Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed mni, MFR, has disclosed.

Professor Rasheed, who was speaking through the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Administration,

Professor Sadiq Isa Radda during a courtesy call by an accreditation team, at the VC's office who came to the Department of Surgery for the accreditation of Surgical speciality on Thursday 27th November, 2014, said the university will continue to innovate and improve services in the College of Health Sciences.

He said “the university has done a lot on health education. We have the College, we have a Center for Infectious Diseases, Center for Advanced Medical Research and we are making other efforts to respond to the yearnings of the people”. Professor Rasheed said the university is open to positive comments to be able to address issues of societal importance, urging all stakeholders to support and assist the university in achieving the desired goal.

The Vice Chancellor thanked the West African College of Surgeons, assuring that the university management will do everything possible to comply with the norms and values regarding the operations of the College of Health Sciences.

Earlier in his address, the leader of the accreditation team and Chairman, Faculty of Surgery, West African College of Surgeons, Professor K. D. T. Yawe, said they were in the University for the accreditation of Surgical speciality, under the Department of Surgery and also to appeal to the university management to establish a Surgical Skills Center.

Professor Yawe, who was accompanied by the Dean, Faculty of Clinical Sciences, Dr Sani Usman Alhassan, Dr P. M. Mshelbwala, Assistant Secretary General, Faculty of Surgery, West African College of Surgeons amongst others, praised Bayero University for doing so much on Surgery and the entire College of Health Sciences.

CDA Holds 1st International Confab on Drylands

Arrangements have reached an advanced stage for the hosting of its 1st International Conference on Drylands by the Centre for Dryland Agriculture, Bayero University, Kano, according to the Chairman, Local Organizing Committee, Professor A. I. Tanko.

He said the conference with theme “Climate Change and Food Security in the African Drylands” is scheduled to take place from 8th to 12th December, 2014.

Professor Tanko, who is also the Dean, Faculty of Earth and Environmental Science, also said a renowned Professor of Climatology from the University of Missouri, Kansas, the United States of America, Professor Jimmy Adegoke, would lead other international and national scholars to be part of the conference.

The Centre for Dryland Agriculture (CDA) is one of the academic Centres and Institutes in Bayero University, Kano, Nigeria.

The Centre it could be recalled was established in 2012 with the aim of building human resource capacity and generating sustainable agricultural technologies that would increase the productivity of crops and livestock in the semi-arid and dry sub-humid environments of the West and Central African Sub-region.

In January 2014, the Centre won the World Bank and Association of African Universities grant of 8 million US Dollars to become an African Centre of Excellence in Dryland Agriculture.

Inter-Faculty Games Now Kick-Off Nov. 29

All is now set for the commencement of the 13th Inter-Faculty games for male and female athletes of Bayero University which is billed to start on Saturday, 29th November, 2014.

The Bulletin had earlier published that the official commencement date was Saturday 22nd November, 2014, but due to some technical problem the officials shifted the date by one week.

According to the fixture of the games issued by the Sports Directorate, nine faculties have been screened. They are: SMS, Medicine, Law, Science, Agric, Education, FAIS, Engineering, Computer Science and Information Technology.

On the day of the opening ceremony (29th November, 2014) Faculty of Science will play against Faculty of Education in male football to mark the commencement of the games proper at the Old Camus field at 3:30pm.

The games to be competed include: Football (male), Handball (male and female), Basketball (male and female), Volley ball (male and female), Badminton, Tennis, Table Tennis, Squash, and Taekwondo etc.

Matches will be played at both the Old and New Campuses.

Department of Optometry Gets HOD

The Vice Chancellor, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed, nni, MFR has approved the appointment of Professor Abdu Lawan as Head of Department of Optometry for two years with effect from 1st December, 2014.

A letter dated 26th November, 2014 called on the HOD to “give sound academic and administrative leadership to the department.”

SECURITY DIVISION

Prevention of Bush Burning on Campus

As the dry season sets-in, members of the University community especially those residing on Campus are hereby reminded to clear the surroundings of their houses to guard against fire incident. Parent who have children or wards living with them in the staff quarters are required to caution them against indiscriminate setting of fire either within the quarters or surrounding bush.

A statement signed by A. A. Mohammed, Director Security said, it is an offence for any staff living on Campus to use bush-burning as a means of clearing his premises. Any person that uses fire deliberately or inadvertently, thereby causing damage or loss to University or individual's property as a result of careless handling of the fire, in addition to any punishment that may be imposed by the University Authority, the staff will be surcharged for the repairs of the damage/compensation for the loss of property.

Corrigendum

In the 44th edition of the Bulletin dated 10th October, 2014, page 3, we erroneously credited to Professor Auwal Abubakar the contents of a piece titled: “Insurgency: New Campus Chief Imam Cautions Muslims to Sensitize Minds.”

The correct thing is that the content of the piece was presented as part of the Eid-el-Kabeer Sermon (Khutba) by Prof. Muhammad Kabir Yunus not Professor Muhammad Auwal Abubakar. We express our appreciation to Prof. M. A. Abubakar for drawing our attention to the error, which is regretted.

STAFF MODEL PRIMARY SCHOOL: Revenue Drive

The Bayero University Staff Model Primary School informs all staff having children in the above school that:
