VC Applauds Venom-Antivenom Study Group for Outstanding Performance

Vice Chancellor of Bayero University, Professor Muhammad Yahuza Bello, has commended the Venom-Antivenon Study Group (VASP) of Bayero University for its outstanding landmark in research and performance within the last few months. The group is saddled with the research into and study of antitoxic for treating bites from venomous animals such as snakes and spiders.

Receiving the study group on Tuesday 29th December, 2015 in his office, under the leadership of the Provost, College of Health Science, Professor Abdurrazak G. Habib, he said the University would continue to support the study group in its effort to solve societal problems.

Professor Yahuza Bello said when the group was formed the University Management was very much happy because it was in line with the opinion of the University that such and similar groups are needed so as to assist research and teaching.

He said the study group was a milestone in advancing the efforts of the University towards problem solving especially that the Management was putting effort towards the completion and takeoff of the two research centres at the College of Health Science and other research centres at the New and Old Campuses.

The Vice Chancellor said coordinating bodies were very important in the field of research as their presence would facilitate the desired impact, saying that with the study group coordinating the Venom-Antivenon researches, the University has a formidable arm in solving one of the most challenging problems bedeviling the society to do with snake and spiders bites.

Professor Bello expressed gratitude at the manner the study group developed its proposals, assuring that the University would approve the remaining 3million Naira grants in addition to the 5million Naira given to the group initially. He urged the group to search for more collaboration in order to boost their research activities.

The Provost, College of Health Science, Professor Abdurrazak G. Habib said they were in the Vice Chancellor's office to brief him on the activities of the study group and congratulate him for his recent appointment as the 10th Vice Chancellor of Bayero University.

Professor Abdurrazak Habib said the study group was able to get collaborations from within and outside the country, adding that during its maiden conference, Bayero University was able to make over 20 oral presentations in addition to the other presentations done by the academics.

He further said they went for other conferences in Cambridge, Oxford and some other overseas universities apart from the ones conducted in Nigeria; these he said were in addition to three landmark papers which were publicised in over 50 international media.

Professor Habib said the study group has developed three proposals of 180million Naira and sent to the TETFund, saying, however, the proposals have not yet scaled through. He appealed to the Vice Chancellor to give more support to the study group in order to deliver.
