The Registrar of Bayero University Kano, Hajiya Fatima Binta Muhammad, has charged students to imbibe the culture of good conduct and morality, so as to be agents of social change and development of the society.

Hajiya Binta, who was speaking at the award ceremony organized by the National Union of Benue State Students held on Saturday 1st October, 2016 at the SUG Parliamentary Hall, New Campus, explained that society can only prosper and develop with an active participation and contribution of the youth.

Represented by the Director of General Administration, Malam Sabo Mijinyawa, the Registrar described youth as the pillars of any society explaining that the dream of every parent is to see their wards becoming successful in their endeavours. This could only be possible if students focus on their studies.

She expressed delight that students of Bayero University had been very peaceful, pointing out that the university management would do everything humanly possible to provide adequate welfare with a view to making the environment conducive for learning and research, so as to produce quality citizens for the development of the country.

Earlier, the President of the Association, Comrade Agwa John Terseer, said the Association intended to honour some personalities for their contribution to the development of humanity.

Highlights of the occasion include an award of excellence presented to the Registrar for her selfless service and support to the students as a mother. Over N100,000 was realized at the launching of an appeal fund for the establishment of a business centre for the association.

DIRECTORATE OF EXAMINATIONS, ADMISSIONS AND RECORDS

Our Ref: R/DEAR/16

5th October, 2016

To All Students:

GUIDELINES ON SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

While wishing you success in the 2015/2016 Second Semester examinations, we would like to draw your attention to the following issues pertaining to the conduct of the examinations and other related issues.

Examinations Regulations: Every student should get acquainted with the General Examinations and Academic Regulations (GEAR) and abide by them during all examinations and throughout his/her period of study at the University. In particular, students should pay special attention to Parts 9, 10, 18 and 19, which deal with Discipline during examinations, Absence from examinations, Guidelines on Academic Writing and Academic Misconduct.

Mobile Phones & Other Digital Devices: Students should note that the University Senate has outlawed taking mobile phones and other unauthorized digital/electronic devices into examination halls and that doing so is a serious offence. A student found using such devices (for whatever purpose) would be expelled and the phones shall be confiscated permanently while anyone found with them (without using them) would be rusticated.

Avoid All Forms of Examination Misconduct: Students are strongly advised to avoid any other form of examination misconduct. The University Senate takes all form of examination misconduct very seriously and punishes all those caught appropriately.

Study Hard: The best way to succeed in the examinations and avoid getting involved in examination misconduct is to study hard.

Take Some Rest: While studying hard, do not overstretch yourself. Studying continuously without proper rest and sleep could be counterproductive. Balance your studies with appropriate rest and sleep.

Signed

Amina Umar Abdullahi
Deputy Registrar (DEAR)
