

ECOWAS Youth Parliament Honours BUK Registrar, As Epitome of Diligence

By Nura Garba

The ECOWAS Youth Parliament (EYP) has honoured the Registrar, Fatima Binta Mohammed with distinguished award of Epitome of Diligence for her meritorious services to the youth and promotion of education.

Presenting the investiture on the Registrar on Thursday, 23rd February, 2017 in her office, Yusuf Abdulla of the National Polytechnic, Accra, Ghana said it was uncommon for the Parliament to honour somebody but owing to the Registrar's indelible footprints as the first female Registrar in Bayero University and someone who made relevance to the promotion of education and advancement of the youth, it became paramount to honour her.

Also speaking, the Speaker of the Parliament, Dabambi Ferdinand from Cote'd'Ivoire, who spoke in French said they were in Kano as part of their tour to Nigeria. He said they had planned to come and honour the Registrar having discovered her immeasurable contributions to the development of education and the youth.

In her acceptance speech, the Registrar, Fatima Binta Mohammed expressed her appreciation over the honour by the EYP and urged them to work assiduously to encourage the youth to be the good leaders of tomorrow.

The Registrar, who was assisted in collecting the award by the Director General Administration, Malam Mijinyawa Sabo and the Director, Establishment Matters, Malam Jamilu Salim, said even though the award came as a surprise to her because she was less than one year, she expressed determination that it would spur her to do more in her services.

ECOWAS Youth Parliament was established in 1925 by a Nigerian, Mr Solanke in London, who led the struggle of African students, when they were discriminated for hostel accommodation.

NAEAP Visits Governor Abdullahi Umar Ganduje

By Rabi'u M. Sagir

The National Association of Educational Administration and Planning (NAEAP) has paid a courtesy call on His Excellency the Executive Governor of Kano State Dr. Abdullahi Umar Ganduje on Wednesday 8th February, 2017.

The Dean, Faculty of Education Professor Ali Tijjani, who led the Association to the Government House, explained that the purpose of the visit was to thank His Excellency for the selfless contribution and moral support given to the Association.

He described Governor Ganduje as a champion and good promoter of governance, who acquired wealth of experience in the many positions that he held across the nation.

Professor Tijjani urged the Governor not to relent in his efforts in supporting NAEAP which will in turn make it realize its dream of promoting good governance and responsible leadership in the society.

In his response, the Governor Dr. Abdullahi Umar Ganduje pointed out that his government is always willing to collaborate with any association that may be of positive impact to the citizens of the State.

He commended the effort of NAEAP towards organizing Conferences and Seminars that would help in bridging the gap between academia and policy makers, which would help in upgrading the quality standard in the field of Administration and Planning.

My Appointment as BUK Librarian a Great Challenge - Dr. Auyo

By Basheer Kabagiwa

Bayero University Librarian, Dr. Musa Auyo, said his appointment was a great challenge and promised to justify the confidence reposed in him. He equally said that the University Library under his leadership would be transformed, modernized and made at par with World Class University Libraries.

The BUK Librarian was speaking when he received a delegate from Auyo town in Jigawa State, who was in his office to congratulate him over his recent appointment.

He said his appointment was a mark of confidence in him, adding that he would work assiduously not to disappoint those who placed such huge responsibilities on him, adding that, 'Your solidarity visit will ginger me to give my best. I want to assure you that, I will not disappoint the people of Auyo. Instead, I will prove to be a worthy son and a shining example for the upcoming generations.'

Dr. Auyo told his guests that he had come on board with the vision and mission to make the BUK library one of the best in terms of electronic and hard copy book collections, adding that one of the major problems with students these days was poor reading culture and that had impacted negatively on their ability to write a coherent essay and speak simple, good and fluent English. 'We shall work closely with Faculties and Departments to encourage students to cultivate the culture of reading. This can only be done if departments make it compulsory for students to make use of the libraries to do their assignments and research works,' he counselled.

He thanked the visitor and assure that he would not disappoint his people in his new responsibility.

Earlier, Alhaji Adamu Barde Auyo, a business man, had told the Librarian that he was sent by the District Head of Auyo to congratulate him over his well-deserved appointment as the BUK Librarian

He prayed to Allah to guide and protect him and also to give him the wisdom and strength to succeed in his new assignment.

Health Advices on Typhoid Fever Prevention

- Wash your hands. Frequent hand-washing in hot, soapy water is the best way to control treatment. Wash before eating or preparing food and after using the toilet. Carry an alcohol-based hand sanitizer for times when water isn't available.
- Boil your drinking water for 15 minutes when you suspect contamination.
- Take only wholesome milk, yoghurt, canned or bottled milks and avoid un-wholesome ones that are more prone to contamination.
- Avoid un-covered food from street vendors as it is more likely to be contaminated.
- Always insist on warm foods that are stored and served in a covered form.
- Ensure proper washing of vegetables and fruits with salt and clean water before consumption.
- Ensure proper storage and preservation of perishable foods items, as perishable foods are more likely to be easily contaminated.
- Buy your food from regulated food premises (i.e commercial or non-commercial places that meet all the sanitary requirements to operate food services).
- Ensure proper cleansing and storage of kitchen utensils and other food containers, to avoid possible contamination.
- Ensure thorough cooking of meat.

Always remember that "The health of one man is the health of all"
